

WILLIAM HOWELL.

JANUARY 3, 1832.

Mr. MITCHELL, of South Carolina, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the case of William Howell, report:

That he enlisted for three years under Capt. Abiel Wishfall, of Hampshire, in the Virginia line; that he was at the battle of Germantown; that he afterwards served a tour of six months, under Capt. Oakley, in what is called McIntosh's campaign; and after this, made a tour of one month, under Gen. Morgan, in Hardy and Pendleton, against the tories;—recommend that he be placed on the pension list, from the 1st of September, 1831.
